ORDER OF WORSHIP

AUGUST 19, 2018

The Fellowship of Free Souls

We believe in a fellowship that shall unite people not in the bonds of Christian, Jewish, or Muslim love — or any other form of sectarian love — but in the holier bonds of human love; going down, beneath all that separates and estranges, to the principles of freedom and understanding; below religions to religion; beneath all sacraments to the universal impulse that bends the soul in reverence and awe; beneath all forms to the faith that strives to express itself in and through them: thus touching common foundations and securing a common fellowship, each helping the other by whatever their deeper insights may reveal — a union not of religious systems, but of free souls, united to build on the basis of truth, justice, and love, the commonwealth of humanity. — Alfred W. Martin

Share the Plate. Each month one-half of the loose currency in the offering plate is donated to a cause with a local presence which advances important principles of Unitarianism. This month's recipient is Siena/Francis House which welcomes, shelters and empowers individuals experiencing homelessness to navigate their own path to safe and appropriate housing. We encourage you to learn more about Siena/Francis House by visiting their website www.sienafrancis.org.

Change for Change. Each week generous people put change in the collection plate. This change goes to our Sunday School youth who decide where the money can be best utilized. In the past they have contributed to Community Meals and International Bridges for Justice. This year youth have identified the recipient as Neighborhood Ministry Team, which purchases bus tickets, and food cards and provides blessings bags to people who come to our church requesting help. Your change makes a difference! Thank you for your generosity!

“A Year Begins Today”

Responsive Reading by Robert Weston

(Congregation will read the italicized lines)

A year is gone.

It matters not when it began

For it has ended now.

There were other years,

And some began with a birthday

And some with a death;

Some with one day of the month and some with another,

Some began with a song and others with a lament,

But today I start another year, whatever the month or seasons;

It is what lies before me that concerns me now.

There will be decisions and tasks;

There will be drudgery, achievement and defeat.

There will be joy and grief,

All the raw stuff of experience

Waiting for me to shape, to fashion as I will,

And it will never become just what I planned.

However it may appear to others

I can turn it to knowledge and wisdom

Or folly.

If it be hard, I can make of it strength;

It may become bone, sinew and steel

Or ashes and waste.

Someone might say, "It all depends on what the year may bring,"

But what I make of it depends on me.
